

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT AARON W. GUFFORD

Chief Master Sergeant Aaron W. Gufford is the Senior Enlisted Leader for Officer Training School, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. He serves as the senior enlisted advisor to the Commandant of Officer Training School for all matters relating to the professional development, education, health, morale, and welfare of 182 total force staff members, who are laser focused on building warrior-minded leaders of character for the Department of the Air Force. OTS produces an annual sum of over 3,500 total force line and non-line officers for both the U.S. Air Force and the U.S. Space Force.

Chief Gufford is originally from Georgia and entered the Air Force in July 2000. His background includes various positions within the Communications-Computer Systems Operations, Cyber Systems Operations, and Cyber Warfare Operations career fields with specialized experience as an offensive cyberspace operator charged with executing full spectrum, multi-domain operations on behalf of the Air Force, United States Cyber Command, and the nation. Along with his assignments listed below, he also has operational deployments to Stuttgart Germany, Pristina Kosovo, and Baghdad Iraq. His leadership experience includes Squadron Operations Superintendent, Combat Mission Team Senior Enlisted Leader, squadron Senior Enlisted Leader and group Senior Enlisted Leader.
