

SENIOR MASTER SERGEANT JARVIS M. WILSON

SMSgt Jarvis M. Wilson serves as the Senior Enlisted Leader for the Air Force's Warrant Officer Training School (Provisional) under the Jeanne M. Holm Center for Accessions and Citizen Development Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. In this role SMSgt Wilson is responsible for establishing, operating, and executing commander's intent for the Air Force's first-ever Warrant Officer accessions training program. Warrant Officer Training School is equipped to produce up to 300 candidates annually for personnel prepared to integrate technical and specialized expertise across the competition continuum.

Prior to this assignment, SMSgt Wilson served as the Senior Enlisted Leader, Squadron Officer School, Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. Every year, the school educates over 4,200 Department of the Air Force captains, civilians, and international military officers to think, communicate, cooperate, and lead in the joint environment. The school's team of military and civilian faculty develop and teach Professional Military Education curricula that begins with the students' preparation to serve as senior Air Force leaders.

Sergeant Wilson enlisted in the Air Force in June 2006 and graduated Contracting Apprentice Technical School in October 2006. He has served in multiple Contracting support roles including management, administration, award and termination of construction, services, and commodities contracts. Sergeant Wilson has deployed three times in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Inherent Resolve.
